BEFORE THE PERSONNEL APPEALS BOARD
STATE OF WASHINGTON

v.)

Respondent.)

Hearing on Exceptions. This appeal came on for hearing before the Personnel Appeals Board, BUSSE NUTLEY, Vice Chair, and GERALD L. MORGEN, Member, on Appellant’s exceptions to the director’s determination dated November 22, 2004. The hearing was held at the Personnel Appeals Board, 2828 Capitol Boulevard, Olympia, Washington, on June 9, 2005.

Appearances. Appellant Greta Sorensen was present and was represented by Sally Farrar of the Washington Federation of State Employees. Human Resources Consultant Lloyd Hoage represented Respondent Department of Social and Health Services.

1 Background. Appellant submitted a Classification Questionnaire (CQ) in December 2003
2 requesting that her Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource Manager (DDCRM) position #RQ31
3 be reallocated to the Social Worker 3 (SW 3) classification. By letter dated December 23, 2003,
4 Tess Sample, DSHS Region 4 Human Resource Consultant, notified Appellant that her position was
5 properly allocated to the Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource Manager classification. Ms.
6 Sample determined that Appellant's duties were within the job specifications of the DDCRM
7 classification and the classification was specifically established to encompass the types of duties
8 performed by Appellant, specifically, providing services to developmentally disabled clients.

10 Appellant appealed the agency's decision to the director of the Department of Personnel, and on 11 September 22, 2004, Paul L. Peterson, Personnel Hearings Officer, held an allocation review. By 12 letter dated November 22, 2004, Mr. Peterson notified Appellant that her position was properly
13 allocated to the DDCRM classification. On December 17, 2004, Appellant filed an appeal with the 14 Personnel Appeals Board.

16 Summary of Appellant's Argument. Appellant asserts she performs the same duties as a Social 17 Worker 3. Appellant asserts that she uses the same programs, received the same training, and 18 manages her caseload in the same manner the Social Worker 3s manage their cases. Appellant
19 contends that over time her work has changed and argues that only a small percentage of the duties
20 she performs actually exists in the DDCRM specification. Appellant asserts the job specifications
21 for both the DDCRMs and SW3s are outdated and asserts the Division of Aging and Adult Services
22 no longer exists because it merged with Development Disabilities under the Aging and Disability
23 Services Administration (ADSA). Appellant further asserts that DDCRMs and SW3s working in 24 the ADSA often transfer cases back and forth and perform the same level of work. Appellant

1 asserts the work she performs best fits the Social Worker 3 classification and argues that classifying
2 her position to the DDCRM classification is inequitable treatment.

4 Summary of Respondent's Argument. Respondent does not dispute that there are some levels of
5 duties and responsibilities that are similar for both the Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource
6 Manager and Social Worker 3 classifications. Respondent, however, argues the positions do not
7 actually perform the same duties. Respondent argues that although the reporting structure has
8 changed, the actual functions of the DDCRM positions have not changed and contends Appellant's
9 duties are specifically addressed in the DDCRM classification specification. Therefore, Respondent
10 argues the director's determination should be affirmed, because position #RQ31 is properly
11 allocated to the DDCRM classification.

13 Primary Issue. Whether the director's determination that Appellant's position is properly allocated
14 to the Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource Manager classification should be affirmed.

16 Relevant Classifications. Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource Manager, class code 35610;
17 Social Worker 3, class code 35220.

18
19 The definition for the class of Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource Manager states:

20 Within the Division of Developmental Disabilities, provides advanced level of 21 social services, specialized case and/or resource management for people who have 22 developmental disabilities and their families.

23 The definition for the class of Social Worker 3 states:

24 Within the Department of Social and Health Services, functions as a lead worker
25 or sole case manager in a remote location in either Aging and Adult Services or
26 Economic and Medical Services; or performs advanced level of specialized case
27 management in Children and Family Services or Aging and Adult Services. ...

2 Decision of the Board. The purpose of a position review is to determine which classification best
3 describes the overall duties and responsibilities of a position. A position review is neither a
4 measurement of the volume of work performed, nor an evaluation of the expertise with which that
5 work is performed. Also, a position review is not a comparison of work performed by employees in
6 similar positions. A position review is a comparison of the duties and responsibilities of a particular
7 position to the available classification specifications. This review results in a determination of the 8 class which best describes the overall duties and responsibilities of the position. Liddle-Stamper v.
9 Washington State University, PAB Case No. 3722-A2 (1994).

11 After reviewing the CQ submitted by Appellant for position #RQ31, we find that Appellant's duties
12 are consistent with the DDCRM class specification. As in our decisions in Gesseini et. al v. Dep't.
13 of Social and Health Services, PAB Case No. ALLO-04-0012 (2005) and Anderson v. Dep't. of 14 Social and Health Services, PAB Case No. ALLO-04-0019 (2005), we continue to hold that while 15 there are similar duties in the DDCRM and SW3 classifications, Appellant's position was created
16 for the purpose of performing Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource Manager work and those 17 duties are specifically addressed in the definition of the class specification. Even though the former
18 Developmental Disabilities Division became a subdivision under the Aging and Disability Services
19 Administration, the record supports that Developmental Disabilities Case/Resource Managers
20 remained under that subdivision, while social workers went primarily to the Home and Community
21 Services Division under the same administration. Appellant has not met her burden of proving that 22 position #RQ31 should be allocated to the SW 3 classification.

23
24 Conclusion. The appeal on exceptions by Appellant should be denied, and the Director's
25 determination dated November 22, 2004, should be affirmed and adopted.

1 ORDER

2 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the appeal on exceptions by Greta Sorensen
3 is denied, and the Director's determination, dated November 22, 2004, is affirmed and adopted.
